ARJUN SAGAR GUPTA

Solo, Duo, Trio, Quartet

An electronics engineer by education and a Fulbright music scholar, Arjun Sagar Gupta has been a performing pianist since the early 2000's. His influences include but are not restricted to pianists such as Art Tatum, Erroll Garner and Thomas 'Fats' Waller, but also classical maestros such as Franz Liszt, Vladimir Horowitz, Bach and Chopin. Arjun started his musical journey under the tutelage of Mr. John Raphael at the Delhi School of Music who apart from being the director of the institute was undoubtedly one of the best piano teachers in the country. Arjun plays the piano and sings with musicians from across India and the world.

Often described as the go-to encyclopedia of Jazz by the industry, Arjun has, over the last 15 years, curated or performed in over 1500 shows. In 2015, he founded The Piano Man Jazz Club, India's premier live music venue, hosting performances every day with incredible musicians from across the world. Arjun is an active promoter of India's live music circuit, curating various festivals and assisting various venues across the country plan their performance arts calendars.
