

THE OBVIOUS CATS

Quintet

From full Jimi Hendrix to a little John Mayer with a hint of Beatles, The Obvious cats is going to cook a blues rock stew that will satisfy your music hungry soul.

Bringing back the power of live music in the current digital age, The Obvious Cats want you to feel the cranked up amps in your heart. Performing their own rendition of the classics from the great Cream, Hendrix and Etta James, the band won't let your heart rest even for a minute!

Jasjit Singh has been in love with the electric guitar for the past 8 years and his love for the art has taken him to a journey with various bands ranging from brit rock to garage. Corporate employee by day and a bluesman by night, Jasjit has been doing sessions with various musicians for the past 3 years.

Siddharth Srinivasan is a versatile drummer and draws his influence by famous acts such as Breaking Benjamin, Linkin Park and the likes. His love for Alternative Rock shows in his drumming, with dramatic pauses and a lot of technical fills it sure is a treat watch this guy play.

Surdhani Zaheer, who is a professional crooner in our band, has a good experience of 5 years and has sung with various bands. Her favourite genres are country and classic rock. She also specialises in theatre and loves teaching kids during the day.

On bass duties we have Prateek Chauhan. He started out as a guitarist back in 2010, but his love for bass finally made him pick up the axe in 2017 and has been grooving and baking kickass basslines ever since!

Ishaan Tyagi is a 21 year old pianist hailing from Delhi, Playing the instrument for over 6 years, Ishaan is influenced by a variety of musicians (snarky puppy, vultpeck and the likes), his instrumental prowess keeps the band grooving all the time!

Members

Jasjit Singh
Vocals / Lead Guitars

Siddharth Srinivasan
Drums

Surdhani Zaheer
Vocals

Prateek Chauhan
Bass

Ishaan Tyagi
Keys

Style

Blues, Classic Rock